Bennett told this to Louise before her vacation about two weeks in July, that she saw Mrs. Mills and Mr. Hall out riding in the Case machine and said Mrs. Mills ought to have better brains and stay away from the domoney with all the talk that is going on. Louise answered yes she ought to know.

October 21st, 1922. Statement from Old Mrs. Mills that the following are her sons Henry who lives on Jones Avenue is 45 years old. James who lives on Carmine Street is 43 years old and Vernon who lives on Oliver Street and John Mills.

James married about 17 years of age. His first job was with Felters shoe shop there about 7 or 8 years, then he went to the Neverslip from there to the Howe Rubber shop for about four years. Janitor of the school for about one year in September. Also caretaker of the Church two years. Had two children Charlotte 16 years and Dan 12 years. Old Mrs. Mills did not approve of James marrying Eleanor. Also that Eleanor was put out of home by her mother and then went to live with Bernie or Morris. Eleanor always quarreling with James and threatened to commit suicide, saying I am not going to stay I will never live with James. I just came from the hospital the doctors said I am going to be lame for life and nothing would please Eleanor. Mrs. Mills sister a Mrs. Tennyson lives on Sommerset Street. Also that her other sister Mrs. Wittaker is on the outs with Mrs. Mills. The mother also tells me that Eleanor one time took the poker at James and he had to cry for mercy and this story was told to a lawyer in either Middletown or Middlesex. She also said that at about 2:30 P.M. on September 14th, 1922 Mrs. Mills said she was at Eleanor's house and that Eleanor told her (old Mrs. Mills) that she could not stay there any longer and was going over to Mrs. Clark. Old Mrs. Mills saw Eleanor going up towards George Street. After she left the house old Mrs. Mills went over to her son's house and
